

Social welfare

IN THE SOCIAL WELFARE SECTOR – Events, festivals and theatre performances are not the same without music. Music creates the atmosphere. Music attracts visitors, increases sales and sets the tone for any occasion. You pay a fee to use this music, so that composers and songwriters can continue to make music. The social welfare tariff applies to music venues, community halls, clubs and village halls.

How we calculate the fee

The costs are based on the area of the room where the music can be heard. This can include an outside terrace too. For entertainment music, we the area and number of days take into account. The amount of the artists' fees/buy-out fee must not exceed €1,000 per performance and the entrance fee must be lower than € 25.

Please note!

- In addition to an annual agreement, seasonal agreements are also possible.
- If you play the same music in different rooms, we add up the number of square meters in each room. If you play different music in different rooms, you pay separately per room.
- Separate rates apply for music played in restaurants, workplaces or at events. Please ask us for the relevant tariff.
