

Fairground

FOR FAIRGROUNDS – What is a funfair without music? Music at fairgrounds creates a fun atmosphere and visitors enjoy the rides even more. To use this music, you pay a fee to the music creators.

How we calculate the fee

The costs are based on the size and type of the fairground. We make a distinction between in small, medium and large operations. It is also possible to apply for a seasonal license, so you only pay for the period that the fairground is open per year.

- Specific children's rides (such as a merry-go-round and string pull games) fall into to the category of small operations.
- Big rides (such as roller coasters and octopus rides) fall into the category of large operations.
- Other attractions fall into to the category of medium-sized operations.
